

Acting Servant Table Card

Protect the process. Don't control the outcome.

THREE RULES

- 1 Never campaign for a proposal.
If you need to participate personally, speak during your normal Voice turn.
- 2 Never require someone to explain withheld consent.
Their agency does not require justification.
- 3 Don't fear silence.
Give people time to think.

QUICK SCRIPTS

- OPENING “Today I’m serving as Acting Servant. My role is to protect the process and make sure every Voice is heard without pressure or debate.”
- INTERRUPTION “Hold on for just a moment. We’re in Voice right now. Let’s allow them to finish and then we’ll continue around.”
- DEBATE “Let’s bring this back to Voice. Rather than responding directly, hold that thought for your turn.”
- READINESS “It sounds like we’ve heard the major perspectives and there may be alignment. Do we have a move to consent?”
- WITHHELD “Consent is withheld. Thank you. No explanation is required. We’ll let this proposal rest and move forward.”

THE ACTING SERVANT'S TEST

Am I protecting the process—or influencing the outcome?
